

Restoration Case Study

This roofing, renovation, and hail restoration company in Florida came to us to increase organic traffic and leads. By optimizing on-page elements, creating optimized localized content, and increasing their local presence in their service areas we increased organic conversions by 26% in a 6 month period. Many of these conversions were for large commercial roofing projects which is where the client wanted to grow as that is the client's most profitable service. We saw very significant increases in searches (+76%) and views (+127%) generated from their Google My Business listing. We also saw steady keyword increases over the first 6 months, jumping up 90+ spots for high search volume keywords like "siding installation", "roofing installation", "roof tarping", and "hail damage roof".
